

CLASS OF 1825

JEREMIAH WOOD

In 1825 Rev. Jeremiah Wood, then a young man lately graduated at Princeton, was sent out as a missionary; when Mr. Ammerman gave up his pastorate ( of the Low Dutch Reformed Church of Mayfield) Mr. Wood stepped in, and on September 27, 1826, the church was re-organized, assuming the name of "The Central Presbyterian Church of Mayfield" by which name it is still known. Mr. Wood was duly installed as pastor by authority of the Albany Presbytery.

FROM History of Montgomery & Fulton Counties, N.Y. p. 228
F. W. Beers & Co.
New York 1878

X *Wood, Jeremiah—b. Greenfield, N. Y., Nov. 11, 1801; U. C., 1824; (2+);
ord. evang. Phy. Albany, Jan. 10, '27; s. s. Mayfield, N. Y., '26—p. '40-76; d.
Mayfield, N. Y., June 6, 1876. Princeton Schol. Cat. 1894 Class of 1823.
62—*60.

1824      JEREMIAH WOOD

AUTHOR: Life and Character of Rev. Elisha Yale, D.D.
384 pp.
Joel Munsell, Albany.
1854.

Rev. JEREMIAH WOOD, 1824, of Mayfield, N.Y., was a member of the Adelpic Society.
Adelpic Catalogue 1830      (Died: 1876)