CLASS OF 1815.

DAVID BROOKS.

DIED: At Fortress Mackinac, (Michigan) on the 16th of May, Lieut. David Brooks, of the 2nd Inf., U. S. Army, son of the hon. David Brooks, formerly of Dutchess County, N. Y.

Christian Advocate & Journal
June 15, 1827.

DAVID BROOKS, 1815, of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was a member of the Adelphi Society.
He died in 1827.
Adelphic Catalogue 1830
CLASS OF 1815.

DAVID BROOKS, JR.

Saturday Evening Gazette.

Issue by 1st marriage:
1. Fanny, married William Walton and died without issue.
2. Isabella, married Walter Rutherford and had four sons and one daughter.

Historic Families of America p. 222
Walter W. Spooner.
New York.

***

The Jones Family of Long Island p. 186
John H. Jones
New York 1907.

***

Frances Morris was the daughter of William Walton Morris, third son of Lewis Morris, the signer, and Miss Carpenter.
Walter Rutherford married Frances Brooks, June 4, 1846. He was a graduate of Rutgers College, 1831.

Family Records and Events p. 246
Livingston Rutherford
New York 1894.

***

Issue: Frances Anne, m. William Henry Walton.
Isabella Neil, b. May 1831
m. 1848
Walter Rutherford, b. June 14, 1812; d. 1868.
Gouverneur Morris, died young.

Descendants of Lewis Morris Chart E II 236
Elizabeth Morris Lefferts

***

David Brooks was the son of David Brooks, Member of Congress, who died Aug. 30, 1838.