

CLASS OF 1829

WARREN THATCHER WORDEN

Was born in Milton, Saratoga County, November 7, 1806.

He graduated from Union College, came to Auburn in 1822, and in 1828, commenced the study of law with William H. Seward. He afterwards pursued his studies with William Brown, and was admitted to the bar in the same class with Preston King, and Henry R. Selden. He commenced practice first in company with Robert Campbell, of Bath, Steuben Co., N. Y., afterwards Lieut. Gov., with whom he continued two or three years. He was associated five years with Paris G. Clark and a like period with W. W. Shepard, of Waverly. He is a good counsellor, a sound lawyer, and an industrious worker.

History of Cayuga County p. 222
Elliot G. Storke
D. Mason & Co.
Syracuse 1879.

WARREN THATCHER WORDEN, 1829 Auburn, N. Y.

Entered from Auburn, N. Y. . . . A. B. 1829; A. M. 1832.

Counsellor at Law (retired). Admitted to the Bar July, 1830, at Utica, N. Y.; practiced at Auburn, N. Y. (W. T. & W. A. Worden.)

*Warren Thatcher Worden.

Auburn. Union '29, M.A. Law. Engloss. Σ Φ. D. Auburn 1891.

CLASS 1829 at HOBART

HOBART CAT. p. 33.

WARREN T. WORDEN, 1829, of Auburn, N.Y., was a member of the Philomathean Society.
Philomathean Catalogue 1830 (Died: 1891)

1829

Hicks Worden

Non-graduate Hamilton College, 1830
Hamilton College Alumni Register, 1812-1922.

Warren Thatcher Worden A.B.
1829

1829
Warren Thatcher Worden F.B.