SAMUEL B. WILLIS

A correspondent of the Poughkeepsie "Eagle" speaks as follows of Rev. Samuel B. Willis, who has entered upon the pastorate of the Baptist Church in this village:

This gentleman, we understand, has resigned his charge as pastor of the Baptist Church at Pine Plains, where he has labored for the past two years, and has accepted a call from the Baptist Church at Saugerties, Ulster county.--Elder Willis leaves an unsullied character, many valuable friends and no enemies, unless it be those who have become so because he has told them the truth.--His faithful preaching to the church and soul-stirring appeals to the unconverted, we trust will not soon be forgotten. Although it may be seed buried long in dust, we believe the fruit will appear after many days. There are some who have contributed liberally to the support of Elder Willis and aided him with their prayers, and some who love the Gospel well but love their money better. We speak for Elder Willis, by those of his contemplated charge, not only a cordial greeting, but a hearty to himself and beloved family, and trust that with warm hearts and open hands they will contribute of their substance to lessen his cares, and supply his wants, that he may give himself wholly to the work that his profiting may appear to all that when his labors shall close on earth he may be raised into everlasting habitations, and his final reward be that of those who turn many to righteousness.

ELOS LEMUEL WINSLOW

Born December 26, 1806 at Williston, Vt.

Graduated at Union College, Schenectady, in 1835.

He then turned his attention to civil engineering; was employed in the survey of some railroads in New York State, and canals and railroads in Michigan. Abandoning his profession, he went to Malone, N. Y., and engaged as principal of the academy there, where he remained several years, during which time he studied law and was admitted to practice, but never devoted his attention to the profession afterwards. He was appointed superintendent of schools for Franklin County in 1845, held the office two years, and was then elected Member of Assembly. It is truly said that he discharged the duties of the various positions he held during his life with credit to himself and satisfaction to his employees and constituents. In 1848 he left Malone for California, where he pursued the business of mining and merchandising with variable success, until his death in 1854 in Volcano, California.

SIR,—

It is the aim of the subscriber, in collecting the information asked for by the following questions, to obtain materials for a concise Biographical Catalogue of the Trustees, Presidents, Professors and Tutors of Union College ;—of those who have received Honorary Degrees from it, and of all who have ever entered that Institution, whether Graduates or not.

That such a work would be interesting and useful to the Alumni, will not be denied ; but whether it be practicable, will depend chiefly upon the ready aid which they shall impart. This circular will be sent to every Graduate whose residence is known, (or, if deceased, to some near connection,) and it is confidently expected that no one will neglect to return it in due time, with as full information as circumstances will allow :—some of the questions, indeed, it may not be possible to answer with certainty ; others not at all : still, it is hoped that no important facts will be withheld because of their fewness.

Death has removed the twenty-four original Trustees, the first three Presidents, the early Professors and Tutors, and from eight hundred to one thousand of the Alumni of the College. Doubtless their friends and descendants will cheerfully contribute such information as may be necessary to illustrate the lives and services of the departed.

The subscriber desires every aid that may help to throw light upon the personal history of those concerned :—Obituary Notices ; Biographical Sketches, Epitaphs, Funeral Sermons, Newspaper Notices of election to important offices or stations, Business Cards and Advertisements ; also, copies of their Literary Works, Addresses, Sermons, Essays, Newspapers, engraved Portraits, &c. ; all of which will be deposited and preserved in an Alcove of the College Library, to be set apart for “ Graduates’ Works.”

He also requests that all future changes affecting the answers which shall be given, be made known to him from time to time :—especially the deaths of Graduates, and that the usual obituary notices or funeral sermons published on such occasions, be sent with the announcements, as it is his purpose to publish these deaths hereafter once a year.

Nebraska.

By the news under our Telegraphic head, received this morning, we learn that in the House of Representatives yesterday the bills on the calendar preceding the Nebraska Bill were severally passed over by a vote in the Committee of the Whole, and the Nebraska Bill, thus reached, taken up for the action of the House upon it. The statement of our telegraphic dispatch does not indicate with any certainty, from any vote taken, what the final action of the House will be. The question in dispute is the repeal or abrogation of the Eighth Section of the Missouri Compromise, which prohibits Slavery in the Western Territory.

The vote of the bill of Mr. DOUGLAS.

The determination of a majority of the House to be in favor of organizing a Territorial Government for Nebraska. Whether the majority will be found in favor of sustaining the free institutions provided for by the Missouri law in 1820, or of authorizing Negro Slavery in our unoccupied Territory, the future action of the House will determine. The Slave propagandists seem determined to make the party politics of the country turn upon questions between Freedom and Slavery.

Veto Message.

On Wednesday last, (May 3,) the President returned the Indigent Insane Bill to the Senate with his objections. We have not room for this Message to-day, but will give it next week. The main feature of the Bill thus vetoed, may be stated as follows:

That ten millions acres of land be granted to the several States, to be apportioned among them in the compound ratio of the geographical area and representation of said States in the House of Representatives, for the benefit of indigent insane persons.

Cheering News for the Potsdam and Watertown Railroad.

The Stockholders of the Watertown and Rome Railroad, at a meeting held at Watertown, May 3d, voted to authorize their Board of Directors to endorse the bonds of the Potsdam and Watertown Railroad Company, under the recent Act of the Legislature. We have only room to announce the result without referring to the probable arrangements between the two Companies. It now remains with the Directors of the two Companies to settle the terms upon which, and the amount for which, the endorsement will be made.

Death of Hon. Elos L Winslow.

The last arrival from California brought us the sad intelligence of the sudden death of Hon. E. L. WINSLOW, which occurred at Volcano, Calaveras County, California, on or about the 28th day of February last. Mr. WINSLOW was a son of the Hon. N. F. WINSLOW of Norfolk, and brother of the present County Clerk of St. Lawrence County. He was formerly, for a number of years, a citizen of Franklin County, and held the distinguished position of Member of Assembly from that County, as well as other responsible places, which fully attested the high respect in which he was held as a man and a citizen. He sailed from New-York for California on the 15th of March, 1848, in company with several of his fellow-citizens of Franklin County, and has been a resident of California ever since his arrival there, pursuing first the business of mining, with varied success, and latterly the mercantile business, with a steadiness of purpose and with a scrupulous integrity which won the confidence and regard of all who knew him. It was our fortune first to become familiarly acquainted with him on his outward voyage to California, in New-York, at Panama, and in the diggings, and having had abundant opportunities to test his character, we know him to have been possessed of a high order of talents, to have been earnest, confident, and ardent in his attachments; and the intelligence of his death, though it awakens heartfelt regrets, brings this solace on its wings—he had not an enemy in the world, and the retrospect of his life reveals an unspotted page. He was a good man.

We copy from the Jackson Sentinel, of March 8th, the following notice of his death:

DIED—Near Volcano, on or about February 28th, Mr. E. L. WINSLOW, aged 48 years.

Mr. WINSLOW left Volcano on Monday, February 27th, for the purpose of going to Mokelumne Hill, and nothing was heard of him until the Friday following, when an Italian from Clinton, who was hunting his animals, discovered a body lying upon the ground, near the head of the South Fork of Jackson Creek. Alarmed, he hastened back to Clinton, and told the people he had seen a dead man, and an animal standing near him. A party immediately went out, and found him lying near a ravine not far from a trail that leads to White's Bar. His hat was off, and near his head was a small bag, apparently placed there to lay his head on; and not more than twenty paces distant stood his trusty animal, which like a faithful friend, would not desert him in the hour of death,—and thus led to his discovery.

On Saturday the body was taken to Volcano, where an inquest was held upon it, and as no marks of violence were to be found, it is believed he died of apoplexy.

Mr. WINSLOW was a merchant in this place, and by his upright dealings and affable manners, he gained the confidence and esteem of all who knew him, and his very sudden death is deeply lamented.

He was a native of St. Lawrence County, New-York, and had filled many important offices in that State. For several years he was a successful teacher in the Franklin County Academy. Since 1849 he has been engaged in business in California; and now that he is dead he still lives in our hearts, as a man whose example is worthy of our highest admiration and our most careful and exact imitation. *MS.
