

WORKSHOPS

The 2014 Fall Workshop was held at Tannery Pond Community Center in North Creek, NY on the topic, "What Is the Greater Threat to Northern Forest Communities: Climate Change or White-tailed Deer?" The workshop was sponsored by the International Paper Foundation and the Colgate University Update Institute.

FRANK PINE

Dr. Catherine Cardelus of Colgate University presents her research on community responses to deer management in Hamilton, NY

GRAHAM COX

Sally Bogdanovitch of Paul Smith's College (right) explains forestry practices on a field trip to the demonstration plots at the Paul Smith's College VIC during the 2013 Forestry Roundtable